

Future Teachers Conference

Friday, February 19

8:30 a.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Marylhurst University campus

Presented by

Marylhurst University Graduate Student Chapter ASCD

Aspiring teachers from all of Oregon's college and university education programs are invited to attend a half-day conference to expand classroom skills and gather important job-seeking information. The session is designed especially for those who will be seeking teaching positions in Oregon in the coming year.

A second similar session is scheduled for Friday, February 12, on the Western Oregon University campus in Monmouth. Registration is $15 for either event and includes lunch. Please preregister by Monday, February 8, at www.oregon-ascd.org. Payment at the door can be provided by cash or check only.

Schedule for Marylhurst University event:

8:30 a.m.	Registration Hawthorn Room, Clark Commons building
9:00	Keynote Address Perla Rodriguez Principal Cornelius Elementary School Forest Grove School District
10 – 10:50	Breakout Session A (six choices)
11 – 11:50	Breakout Session B (six choices)
Noon	Luncheon with guest speaker Hawthorn Room

Breakout session topics:

- Effective strategies with special education students
- EdZapp/resume writing/interview techniques
- Building classroom community/classroom management
- ELL and culturally proficient instruction
- Survival skills for the first-year teacher
- Instructional knowledge that principals look for

Information

About Marylhurst event:

Robert A. Barry, Ph.D.
Department of Education
503.675.3966
rbarry@marylhurst.edu

About Western Oregon University event:

scot_stockwell@beavton.k12.or.us